The New Adventures Of Curious George

Presents Curious George in learning activities involving mathematics, reading, and science skills, with exercises for listening, speaking, and collaboration. Curiosity leads to learning! Curious George Adventures in Learning is a researched series for early learners. It was designed by Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, a global leader in education serving 60 million students worldwide. Each workbook features 12 new mini-stories that provide context for math, reading, and science practice. These stories give children authentic learning experiences that naturally inspire curiosity. Children are more motivated to ask, learn, and retain information when they learn through stories. In the Pre-K workbook, your child will build a foundation for math, literacy, and science understanding. Practice counting to 20, identify basic shapes, and differentiate letters from numbers. The workbooks also integrate social and emotional activities to support whole child development. And they're mapped to the Common Core, providing valuable reinforcement of the concepts they learn in school.

George is lucky to arrive at the library just in time for story hour. But it's not easy for a little monkey to sit still too long. From selecting books to getting his very own library card, George's day at the library makes reading fun. When the man with the yellow hat tells George that he is planning a surprise, of course George is curious. Before long George finds a hat, noisemakers, decorations, and games. It must be a birthday! But whose birthday is it? That's the surprise! This paperback edition now includes a maze and a birthday vocabulary seek-and-find.
